"THE OVERLAND"

One of the world's finest overnight trains, "The Overland" runs daily in each direction between Adelaide and Melbourne, stopping at important stations en route.

"The Overland" is made up of luxurious air-conditioned roomette and twinette sleeping carriages and comfortable saloon-type first and economy class air-conditioned sitting carriages.

A new Club Car, providing light refreshments and full liquor service is available for first class passengers and a cafeteria car provides for economy passengers.

Beds are made up in roomette and twinette carriages before the train leaves, ready to be simply pulled into position when required. Each cabin has its own toilet facilities. Twinette cabins have their own showers. Roomette passengers use a shower recess at the end of their carriage.

Mothers, travelling with a baby in a twinette cabin, may arrange with the Stationmaster at Adelaide or Spencer Street, prior to travel, or with the Conductor on the train, for a bassinette to be provided, without charge.

A Continental tray breakfast, morning paper, and shoe shine are provided for sleeper passengers.

The sitting carriages have adjustable foam-rubber lay back seats for contented lolling or peaceful slumber, individual reading lights and portable tables. Separate wash rooms and toilets at each end provide hot and cold water, power plugs for shavers, and a powder room for the ladies.

Chilled drinking water is provided in all carriages.

Passengers travelling by "The Overland" from Adelaide to Melbourne, who wish to continue their journey to Sydney, may, if they so desire, travel by "Intercapital Daylight" express. These passengers must alight from "The Overland" at Sunshine at 8.40 a.m., change trains and continue the journey to Sydney, departing from Sunshine at 8.57 a.m. and arriving Sydney at 9.22 p.m. same day.

Passengers travelling from Sydney to Adelaide via Melbourne, may, if they so desire, travel by "Intercapital Daylight" express departing from Sydney at 7.45 a.m. (Mon. to Sat.) and arriving Melbourne at 8.20 p.m. This train connects with "The Overland" Express departing Spencer Street at 8.40 p.m. and arriving Adelaide 9.00 a.m. next morning.

MELBOURNE—SYDNEY

"SOUTHERN AURORA"

The "Southern Aurora" is a modern luxury express train, with five twinette and four roomette carriages, providing sleeper accommodation for 198 passengers. In addition, there is a sumptuous club car and stylish dining car. "Southern Aurora" runs nightly between Melbourne and Sydney.

Beds have foam rubber mattresses and individual reading lights. Berths, when folded back, provide comfortable seats for day-time travel.

The double berth twinette cabins have their own hot and cold showers, and roomette travellers can enjoy a similar amenity at the end of their carriages. Other features of each cabin are toilets, wash basin with hot and cold running water, spacious wardrobe, full length mirror, vanity bar, power plug for shaver or dictating machine, adjustable venetian blinds, chilled drinking water, shoe shine service, and a complimentary cup of tea with the morning newspaper.

MEALS

Dining car with a-la-carte service; light refreshments and drinks in club car.

Light tray breakfast will be provided, on request, at nominal rates according to order.

"SPIRIT OF PROGRESS"

The renowned "Spirit of Progress", while primarily a train for first and second class sitting passengers, has a twinette carriage, similar to those on "Southern Aurora", for sleeping passengers.

Sleeping berth passengers receive a Continental breakfast in bed with the morning newspaper, and enjoy similar facilities as on the "Southern Aurora".

At each end of the sitting carriages are wash rooms with hot and cold water; the gents wash room has a power plug for a shaver.

An experienced hostess is on this train to attend to the needs of elderly people, parents and children.

A buffet car provides a continuous meal service.

"INTERCAPITAL DAYLIGHT"

A completely air-conditioned train featuring saloon-type carriages and reclining, adjustable seats, "Intercapital Daylight" provides the daylight service between Melbourne and Sydney, stopping at important N.S.W. stations.

It runs every day except Sundays, and shares with "Southern Aurora" the distinction of making the fastest surface journey between Melbourne and Sydney—of 13 hours.

It's an ideal train for the traveller who likes to relax in armchair comfort and enjoy the varied and interesting scenery through wide landscape windows. Descriptive pamphlets—pleasant souvenirs of the trip—are available to keep passengers informed about the districts through which they pass.

Meals and drinks are served in a modern, spacious buffet car. The service is continuous.

An experienced hostess is on the train to attend to the needs of elderly people, parents and children. Other features are separate toilets, wash rooms with hot and cold water, individual reading lights, and chilled drinking water.

VIA BROKEN HILL

"THE INDIAN-PACIFIC"

The new standard gauge luxury train linking Sydney and Perth (via Broken Hill—Peterborough—Port Pirie) is a luxurious air-conditioned train offering first or economy class sleeping berths, lounge cars, dining cars, cafeteria club car.

First class twinette cabins include private shower, toilet, wash-basin, individual reading lights, refrigerated water dispenser, and cosy beds fitted with deep foam rubber mattresses. First class roomettes with similar facilities (except individual shower) are available for passengers travelling alone and wishing complete privacy. Shower facilities are provided at both ends of roomette carriages. Conductors will serve early morning tea or coffee and biscuits.

Passengers travelling economy class will enjoy similar comfort in two berth cabins equipped with wardrobe, washbasin, refrigerated water, and conductor call service. Showers, toilets and luggage storage compartments are located at each end of the cars.

Drinks will be served in the lounge car where first class passengers may meet and enjoy taped music, gather around the piano, or play cards.

The dining car with tables set for four will serve fine foods and liquors.

Passengers desiring to travel between Adelaide and Sydney via Broken Hill on "The Indian-Pacific" travel between Adelaide and Peterborough in air-conditioned rail cars, and transfer to "The Indian-Pacific".
